Monthly Newspaper for You Can Fly Theatre Company
July 2015

And that is it, we are now finished for the summer! ☺

What a busy and brilliant year we've had, firstly we had the Pixie Performers adorable show 'A Day in the Life of a Christmas Elf' which was positively festive!

Then we've just had 'Peter Pan' which was a truly magical production, everyone worked so hard and it really paid off!

And then this week is our devised piece 'School's Out' which was our older groups first ever production that they have created themselves and next Saturday we have our Pixie Performers production of 'Once Upon A Time' which we know will be wonderful.

As well as our fantastic productions we have had a fun year of theatre trips, festivals and workshops. We've also introduced singing lessons and drums lessons to our plethora of classes as well as begun to deliver tailor made workshops to youth clubs and at festivals.

We are so happy with the direction YCF is heading in and we couldn't do it without you lovely lot, so thank you for attending our classes, working hard, selling tickets, donating costumes, telling your friends, bringing new members, cheering loudly and your dedication to us as a company.

So please join us again in September on the following dates:
